

“Having served as a missionary with the C&MA, my passion and prayer is to see ethnic churches come alive for missions.

Join us as we Bridge Senegal with the gospel.”

“Sir Winston Churchill wisely stated, ‘We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.’ Are you looking for an opportunity to serve the Lord? Short-term missions trips have the amazing power to fulfill you in so many ways. Come live out your purpose to the fullest potential by sharing God’s promise with the people of Senegal.”

—Rev. Terrence Nichols, President,
The Association of African-American Churches of the C&MA
Pastor, New Hope Community Church, Vallejo, California

The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance (2 Peter 3:9).

USE YOUR GIFTS

The C&MA's African-American Association and Short-Term Missions Office will partner with 16 Alliance missionaries and Senegalese church leaders to demonstrate the love of Jesus to the homeless, the imprisoned, and the infirm.

Are you a professional medical worker or skilled in ministry to the homeless or incarcerated? Are you involved in music ministry? God may be calling you to use your gifts and talents to bring hope to lost and hurting people of Senegal.

BUILD THE BRIDGE

Through community outreaches, The Alliance is bringing the good news to Senegalese people. Be a part of the team that is building the bridge.

- ✦ Music and Education Team

VISIT GOREE ISLAND

For nearly 400 years, men, women, and children were gathered on Goree Island and locked up in cells before being shipped to the New World. A 20-minute boat ride from Dakar, the island is deeply rooted in the history of the slave trade. Forts and cannons attest to the island's violent past. Be a part of missions history as God uses the redeemed children of the African Diaspora to bring the gospel of Christ to West Africa.

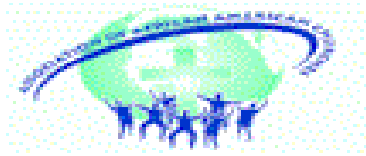

VISIT DAKAR

Experience Senegal culture in the capital city of Dakar, with its beautiful coastlines and indigenous markets. Dakar's laid-back establishments paint a picture of sufficiency. Yet the majority of Senegalese have never heard the message of salvation.

March 30, 2008

Dear Co-laborers in Christ:

Happy Spring to each of you! It is with great excitement that the Association of African American Churches (AAAC) announces "Bridge Senegal, 2009", which is a short-term missions trip to Senegal, West Africa, November 6-16, 2009. We are asking each church to consider sponsoring one or two of your members to join us.

In 2007 a contingent of African American Official Workers journeyed to Senegal to explore this newly opened C&MA mission's field. The Lord amazingly joined the hearts of the C&MA missionaries with the hearts of the African American delegates. The Lord boldly gave a vision of bridging the gap between the cross and culture to bring the gospel to the people of Senegal.

The AAAC is therefore partnering with the Missions Mobilization office at the National Office to sponsor this important short-term mission's trip. Our passion and prayer is to see ethnic churches come alive for missions. Join us as we Bridge Senegal with the gospel. Space is limited so please help us fill our team by distributing the enclosed brochures and displaying the posters.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact us. We look forward to partnering with you in ministry.
